THE COCKTAIL PROGRAM

Contemporary art aims to conceive the present. Its definition is rather imposing and endless. Referred to in the most simplistic way as art in form of - painting, performance, photography, sculpture and installation, contemporary art still varies widely and wildly.

Created in the era of constant questions, this experimental movement leaves nothing sacred. The subject of a contemporary work can be everything. Followed by the trend of the moment, it creates the trend of the moment itself.

This cocktail program does not aim to create a visual imitation of the artwork. Instead, we intend to interpret the underlying definition of the art through our cocktails just like how the artists would want to communicate through their art.
